2. Paragraph 30 should read as follows:

30. Since its establishment in 2005, the United Nations crisis management structure has been led by the Department of Safety and Security and the system of designated officials for security in field locations. At Headquarters, this structure is led by the Senior Emergency Policy Team, chaired by the Chef de Cabinet at the policymaking level and the Crisis Operations Group, chaired by the Under-Secretary-General for Safety and Security, at the operational level. The terms of reference of the Policy Team and the Operations Group are contained in annexes I and II, respectively. In case of a crisis, the Operations Group will activate the crisis management plan to provide an adequate response and protect the staff and assets of the Organization. If the scope of the crisis causes serious disruption of operations, the Operations Group, in consultation with the Policy Team, will invoke the activation of the business continuity plan.
